Dear Lucas

We have received your Planning Proposal for 95 Stanhope Road, Killara and Council staff are reviewing the material for a Report to Council.
You will be formally notified by email when the Officers Report will be going to Council.
I have consulted with the relevant staff and at this stage a meeting is not necessary.
If staff require any further information or clarification they will contact you direct.

Regards

Hi Adrian

We are finalising our project planning for the next few months and accordingly allocating resources.

Can you please let us know when you expect the payment for this proposal to be lodged with Council so we can ensure appropriate staff are available for the assessment?

Thanks.

Thanks Rathna,

Other than the completed form and payment of fees, does Council require hard copies lodged?
