3 Response to Evaluation Criteria

3.1 CAPABILITY

Provide a description of the capability of your organisation and the individuals nominated in relation to the required services.

Gyde Consulting (Gyde) has curated a team of planning professionals that understand the opportunities and challenges associated with the delivery of educational projects of this type and scale. We bring to the table considerable expertise and a nuanced appreciation of the way in which DoE operates and works, following many years of providing our statutory, strategic and social planning services to the organisation.

Gyde's extensive statutory planning experience will enable the subject project to be delivered in a timely manner, ensuring the requirements of DoE (and relevant stakeholders) are all met, and to the highest standard. Our team includes a highly experienced planning director, who brings tailored experience in DoE projects to the table.

Gyde has a strong understanding of the Part 5 reforms that have allowed a development without consent (REF) pathway to be made available for the majority of school infrastructure projects. Gyde is actively working on many DoE projects which are at various stages of the project lifecycle, from project kick off and due diligence phases (Emerald Hills Public School, and Southwest School for Special Purposes), to the preparation of REFs for assessment by the DoE team (Bomaderry High School, Lismore South Public School, Richmond River High Campus), to a number of recent approvals (Medowie High School, Leppington Public School, Leppington High School, Austral Public School, Cammeray Public School, Dundas Public School).

Mel was personally involved in the 'Self-Assessment Education and Guide Review' project for DoE which involved an overall review of Part 5 legislation, DPHI guidelines, and the preparation and presentation of an Education and Training Package. Gyde is across the complexities of the new processes, the guidelines the DoE have implemented, and what this means in the context of delivering this project to DoE expectations. Gyde is consistently working on school projects in such a manner that means we are efficient, well informed, and up to date on key SI processes and approaches.

Our planning director (Mel) will be supported by necessary experienced statutory professionals who have demonstrated experience in the delivery of regional projects, educational projects, and projects that require a considerable amount of government (local and State) input. Critical to the successful delivery of these projects will be early and meaningful engagement with all stakeholders, and particularly, Council, TfNSW and the SES.

Gyde will work in a collaborative manner with the DoE project directors, statutory planning, and communication teams, as well as the broader project consultant teams for the site, to deliver successful outcomes for the delivery of the project.

Lucy Hammond

Mel was involved in the 'Self-Assessment Education and Guide Review' project for DoE which largely involved an overall review of Part 5 legislation, DPHI guidelines, and the preparation and presentation of an Education and Training Package.

Mel has a strong demonstrated understanding of the requirements of DoE and key matters, issues and risks that need to be considered for school projects.

Project Role:

Lucy Hammond (Associate) will work on the daily operation of the project and preparation of Gyde's deliverables.

Qualifications:

- Master of Planning and Sustainable Development, University College Cork, Ireland (2020)
- Bachelor of Arts (Geography, Sociology and Politics) University of Galway, Ireland (2018)

Lucy is a qualified town planner with four years' experience within the private sector in both Ireland, and NSW, following her relocation to Sydney in March 2023. She is a Member of PIA and sits on the PIA NSW Emerging Planners Committee for 2025.

Lucy has a broad range of experience in statutory planning and project management of multi-disciplinary teams, in both Development Applications and State Significant Development Applications.

She was also member of the project team for the new Medowie Public School, involving a peer review of the due diligence, preparation of a SEARs scoping report (when SSDA), and has since involved the preparation of a REF which has recently been approved. She is also a member of the project team for Emerald Hills Public School and the Southwest School for Special Purposes, which are both in the earlier stages of the project.

As part of the SWGA North Primary & SWGA North Secondary, Lucy prepared due diligences for Casula, Thirteenth Avenue – Austral, and Emerald Hills.

3.2 CAPACITY

Confirm your team's capacity and how it aligns to being able to provide the services within the required timeframe.

We have selected our proposed project team to ensure the successful and timely delivery of the scope of works required for the Oran Park Primary SCG Capacity Upgrade. As part of preparation of this RFT we note that a detailed program was not provided, however, we can confirm that our project team have the upcoming capacity to work on this project as required. We note that the desktop due diligence will be required to be prepared within 4 weeks of engagement and a PAPS within 10 weeks of engagement. These timeframes are reasonable, subject to receiving the requisite information required to complete our investigations and reporting.

Our team will be led by Mel Krzus who's current role at Gyde involves the overall program management of all DoE projects. For this project Mel will provide oversight for continuity and quality assurance of all Gyde outputs. She will oversee the project on a daily basis and will have significant involvement in the management of the project and providing technical guidance to DoE. Lucy Hammond has also been selected for the team, given her involvement in the delivery of new schools including Medowie HS, Richmond River HC, Emerald Hills PS, and the Southwest School for Special Purposes.

Our considerable experience in educational, and large scale, projects under Part 5 (REF) will ensure that the project is delivered to the highest standard of quality and therefore, will assist in mitigating risks of delay throughout the assessment process, as far as practicably possible. Our past experience has clearly shown us that in every circumstance, more considered, and detailed work upfront (i.e., prior to completion or approval), will ensure that the assessment timeframe following is as expeditious as possible.

Based on the reasonable assumptions made in our response, we consider that our key staffing proposed will ensure sufficient resourcing to the deliver the services required. However, Gyde is a company comprising 50 professional planning staff. All staff are suitably qualified and capable to assist in the delivery of this project, should unforeseen circumstances arise where a change in staff is required, or the additional capacity be required to meet DoE's program. Currently, we have upwards of 20 team members working on DoE projects at various stages.

We have several other Executive Directors, Directors and other senior personnel within the team that have provided advice and prepared applications for DoE over the years, as well as for our private educational Clients. Our size and experience provide us with the best of both worlds. Firstly, we are large enough to enable us to be agile, to respond to the needs of the project and Client, that may change over the course of the programme. Yet, we remain a bespoke service provider, that provides personalised service and single points of contact for continuity and consistency.
