

Geotechnical Report

The proposed works which are largely cosmetic are located on the external existing walls of the building with no ground excavation work proposed. This by default equates to the development generating no further Geotechnical risk or assessment, as has been the case for dozens of previous projects approved in the Kosciuszko Alpine Resorts and in particular in Guthega Village. Therefore further information in the SEE to address the obvious would be redundant.