Have your say

Anyone can make a submission about the development application during the exhibition period.

Web submissions: The Department encourages online submissions to ensure public safety as well as the timely consideration of all issues raised.

To make an online submission, please go to the Department's NSW Planning Portal website at <https://pp.planningportal.nsw.gov.au/development-assessment/state-significant-applications/projects/state-development-applications> and find the application on the exhibition tab and follow the online instructions.

If you cannot lodge online, you can post your submission to the address below. If you want the Department to withhold your personal information before publication, please make this clear at the top of your cover letter and do not include personal details in your attached submission. If you post or hand deliver your submission, it needs to be received by the Department before the close of the exhibition period.

Your submission must include the following:

- your name and address, at the top of the letter only;
- the name of the application and the application number;
- a statement on whether you 'support', 'object' to the proposal or are only making a comment;
- the reasons why you support or object to the proposal; and
- a declaration of any reportable political donations you made in the previous two years.

Privacy statement: Before making your submission, please read our Privacy Statement at www.planning.nsw.gov.au/privacy or call the number below for a copy. The Department will publish your submission on its website in accordance with our Privacy Statement.

To find out what is reportable, and to access a disclosure form, go to <https://www.planning.nsw.gov.au/assess-and-regulate/development-assessment/planning-approval-pathways/donations-and-gift-disclosure> or telephone the number below for a copy. The disclosure requirements apply to both postal and online submissions.
