To Whom it may concerns,

This letter provides information about tenants living at property number 14 Coraki Rd, Bass Hill NSW 2197.

As operator of the house, we can confirm that all residents who currently live at the house, and who may live at this house, are able bodied and have the capability to move freely and evacuate themselves in the case of an emergency if the need arises.

Provision is being made for an area (bedroom and bathroom) of the home to be accessible , in response to advice from a suitably qualified Access consultant.

Regards,

House Management
