

Site plan 250 Murray Street Tocumwal

Site Plan

Below is a image of the site office it will be modular building (atco) image below of type building proposed:

It will be open floor plan with one access door.

Shipping container generic image of containers that will be permanent on-site containers facing West and North will be screeded with landscaping and also painted in to soften their impact on the area.

