

• A key public realm strategy is to concentrate program uses into defined precincts in order to create legibility and intensity of uses throughout the site.

• All activity generators are linked in the short and long term by roads, public transport and pedestrian and cycle networks

Sydney Science Park - Activity Generators/Focus