Schedule 1 Amendment of Junee Local Environmental Plan 2012

Clause 4.2C

Insert after clause 4.2B—

4.2C Exceptions to minimum lot sizes for certain rural subdivisions

- (1) The objective of this clause is to enable the subdivision of land in Zone RU1 Primary Production to create lots of an appropriate size to meet the needs of existing permitted uses other than dual occupancies (attached) or dwelling houses.
- (2) This clause applies to land in Zone RU1 Primary Production.
- (3) Land to which this clause applies may, with development consent, be subdivided to create a lot of a size that is less than the minimum size shown on the Lot Size Map in relation to that land.
- (4) Development consent must not be granted for the subdivision of land under this clause unless the consent authority is satisfied of the following—
 - (a) each resulting lot that is less than the minimum size shown on the Lot Size Map in relation to that land—
 - (i) will be used for a purpose permitted under an existing development consent for the land (the permitted land use), and
 - (ii) will not be used for the purpose of a dual occupancy (attached) or a dwelling house,
 - (b) the subdivision is necessary for the operation of the permitted land use,
 - (c) the proposed lot sizes are appropriate for the operation of the permitted land use,
 - (d) the subdivision is appropriate having regard to the natural and physical constraints affecting the land,
 - (e) the subdivision will not increase rural land use conflict in the locality,
 - (f) the subdivision will not adversely affect the use of the surrounding land for agriculture.
