19 General provisions for the development of land

(1) Floor space and landscaped area controls

In this clause:

Density area means land shown as a density area by heavy black edging on the Density Map.

(2) Except where the development is carried out in accordance with clause 23 (1), consent must not be granted to the carrying out of residential development on land within a density area if it will result in the floor space ratio exceeding the ratio shown for the density area in the following Table:

Table

Density area	Maximum floor space ratio
Leichhardt	0.5:1
Annandale	0.6:1
Balmain	0.7:1
Glebe	0.7:1

(3) Except where the development is carried out in accordance with clause 23 (1):

(a) the minimum landscaped area for residential development is 40% of the site area, and

(b) 25% of the landscaped area required under paragraph (a):

(i) is to be on natural or unpaved ground that is not overhung by or on top of any structure, and

(ii) is to be permeable, and

(iii) is to be appropriate for substantial deep planting.

LEP Definitions used in this Planning Proposal

LEP2000 definitions

Shop means a building or place used for selling, whether by retail or auction, or hiring;

Commercial premises means a building or place used as an office or for other business or commercial purposes, but does not include a building or place used for a purpose elsewhere specifically defined in the Schedule to LEP2000;

Refreshment room means a building or place, the principal use of which is the provision of food to people for consumption on the premises, and includes a restaurant, café, tea room, eating house or the like, but does not include a kiosk

Proposed additional definitions to be inserted in LEP 2000 in accordance with the Standard Instrument LEP definitions

Light industry as defined in the means a building or place used to carry out an industrial activity that does not interfere with the amenity of the neighbourhood by reason of noise, vibration, smell, fumes, smoke, vapour, steam, soot, ash, dust, waste water, waste products, grit or oil, or otherwise, and includes high technology industry and home industry); and

High technology industry means a building or place predominantly used to carry out an industrial activity that involves any of the following:
