

Appendix A: Photographs of the study area

a) Photo Point 11: Shrubland – very shallow soils over sandstone

b) Photo Point 1: Sphagnum below eastern Dam

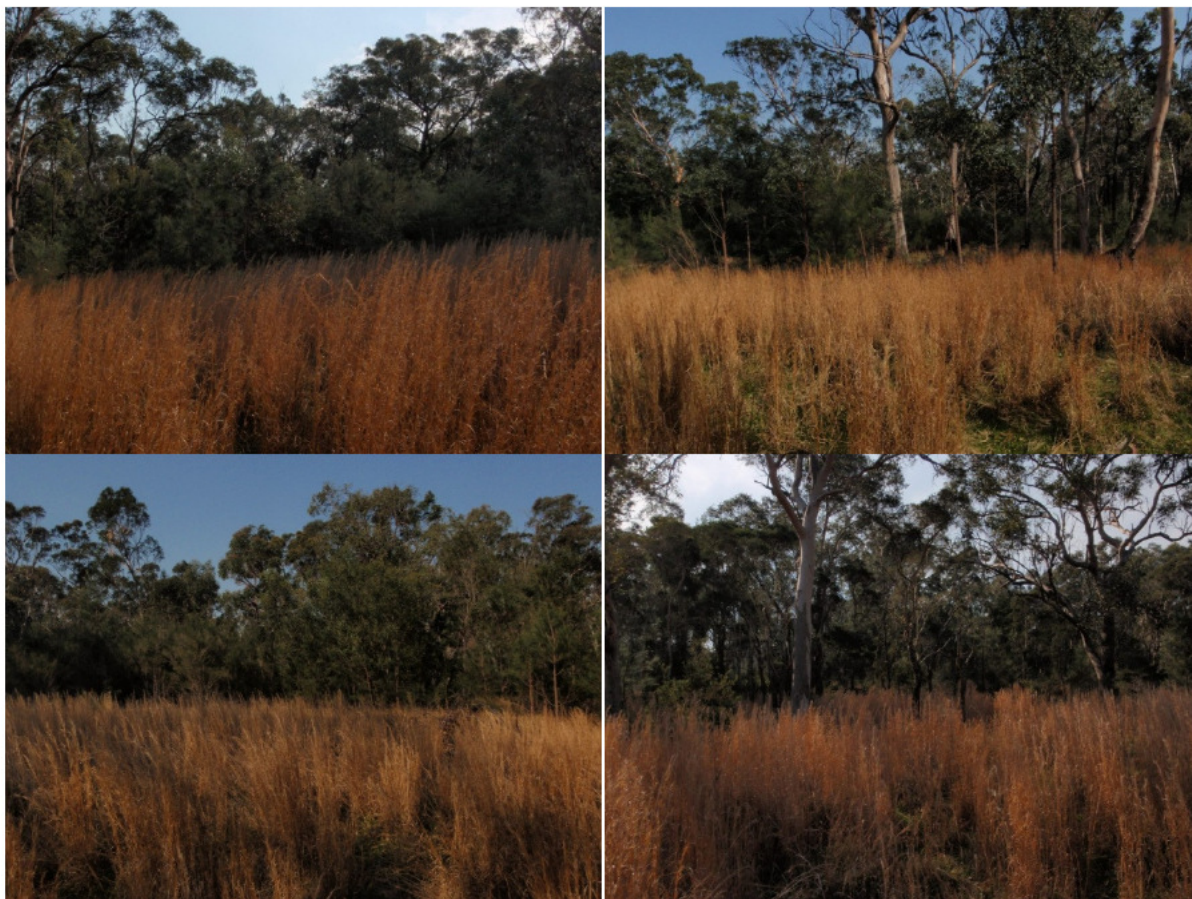

c) The team shed –part of the BMX track created in the south-east corner of Lot 24

d) Photo Point 2: Ecotone of Scribbly Gum Woodland

e) Photo Point 3: Cleared area in the central portion of Lot 24, residue of past grazing. Note high weed levels particularly Whisky Grass

f) Photo Point 4: Another cleared grazing area

g) Scribbly Gum Woodland / Heathland – showing the end of the created drainage channel

h) Photo point 5: Western Boundary Trail

i) Southern Creek near the western boundary of Lot 24

j) Photo Point 13: Motorbike tracks created on the old gravel quarry

k) Photo point 12: Building waste and fill dumped in the former quarry

l) Photo Point 7: Building waste and fill dumped in the former quarry

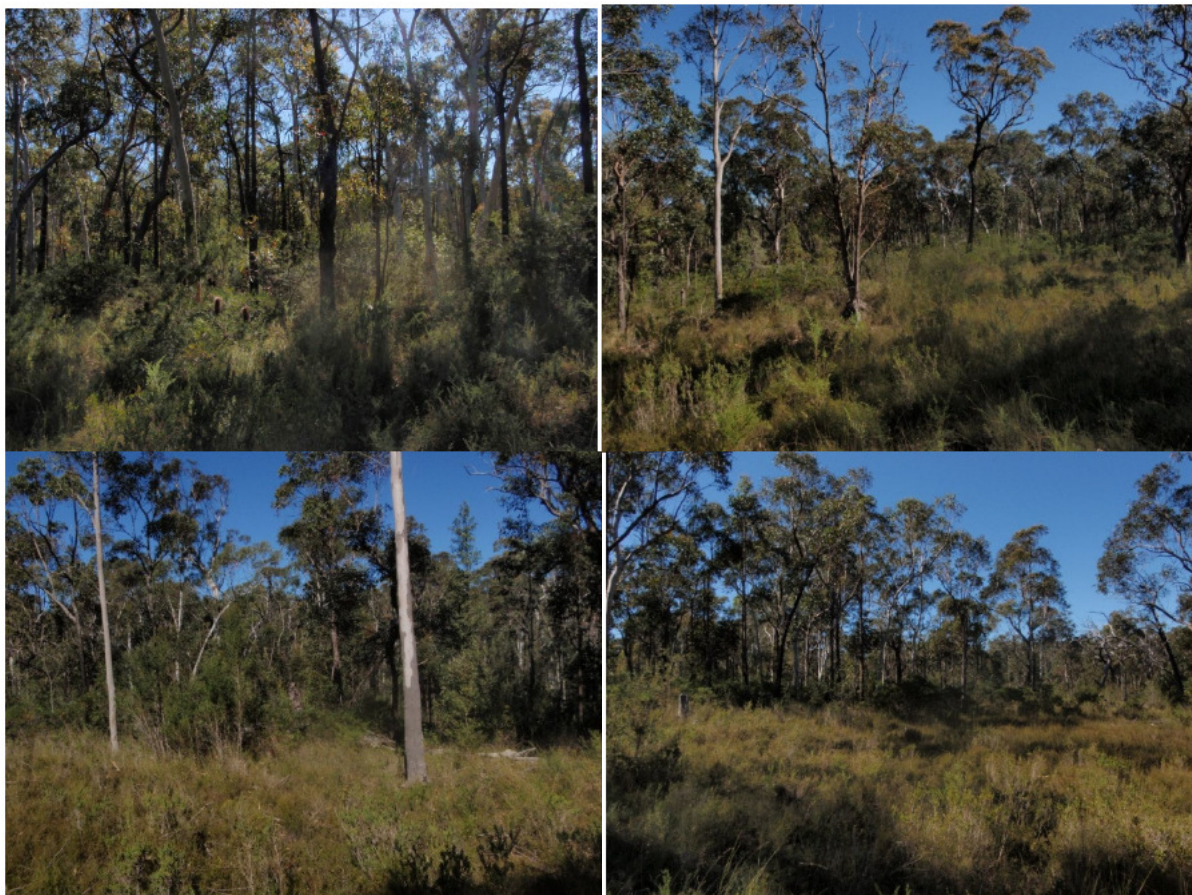

m) Photo Point 10: Southern portion of Lot 24 – note vehicular and bicycle trails

n) Photo Point 8: Blue Gum Forest on the central creekline in the western portion of Lot 24

o) Photo Point X: western portion of Lot 24

p) Photo Point X: Low heath over sandstone in the southern portion of Lot 24

q) Photo Point X: western portion of Lot 24

r) Photo Point 9: Stand of Old man Banksia

s) Photo point 13: Southern edge of the central motorbike track

t) Photo Point 8: BMX track created in the north western portion of Lot 24

u) Glossy Black Cockatoo recorded feeding in a road side reserve north of Lot 24 on Warra Road.

v) Examples of fauna habitat features surveyed for in September 2011 across Lot 24.