<sup>1</sup> An 'actual' conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and their private interests or other duties.

<sup>2</sup> A 'potential' conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with their duties as a panel member in the future.

<sup>3</sup> A 'reasonably perceived' conflict of interests is where a person could reasonably perceive that a panel member's private interests or other duties are likely to improperly influence the performance of their duties as a panel member, whether or not this is in fact the case.

an actual<sup>1</sup> ☐, potential<sup>2</sup> ☐ or reasonably perceived<sup>3</sup> ☐ conflict of interest as detailed below:

A hand-drawn diagram of a cell. It features a large, irregular outer boundary representing the cell membrane. Inside, there is a smaller, roughly circular structure labeled 'Nucleus' with a central dot. To the right of the nucleus is a large, oval-shaped structure labeled 'Vacuole'. The entire diagram is drawn on a background of horizontal lines.
