¹ An 'actual' conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and their private interests or other duties.

² A 'potential' conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with their duties as a panel member in the future.

³ A 'reasonably perceived' conflict of interests is where a person could reasonably perceive that a panel member's private interests or other duties are likely to improperly influence the performance of their duties as a panel member, whether or not this is in fact the case.

I note from the applicants documents received today that Helen Deegan was initially engaged by Council to assess the DA. Council officers confirmed that Helen ceased to be involved in the assessment from mid 2017.

For abundant transparency Helen Deegan was appointed a Director of my company in July 2018. This does not result in my having any conflict on this DA.
