¹ An 'actual' conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and their private interests or other duties.

² A 'potential' conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with their duties as a panel member in the future.

³ A 'reasonably perceived' conflict of interests is where a person could reasonably perceive that a panel member's private interests or other duties are likely to improperly influence the performance of their duties as a panel member, whether or not this is in fact the case.

no known conflict of interest ☐

an actual¹ ☐, potential² ☐ or reasonably perceived³ ☒ conflict of interest as detailed below:

The business for which I work undertakes planning work for a separate business of Sekasui House, which has another business as a neighbour to this DA site. A planning consultant has lodged an objection on behalf of the Sekasui business. I have no involvement with any Sekasui business associated with the subject DA and until reading the submission was unaware of any Sekasui land ownership or interest. I have no direct, pecuniary or other interest.
