¹ An 'actual' conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and their private interests or other duties.

² A 'potential' conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with their duties as a panel member in the future.

The image shows a section of lined paper with two hand-drawn curved lines. The first line on the left is a simple, shallow arc. The second line to its right is a deeper, more pronounced curve. Both lines are drawn in a light, sketchy manner.
