¹ An 'actual' conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and their private interests or other duties.

² A 'potential' conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with their duties as a panel member in the future.

³ A 'reasonably perceived' conflict of interests is where a person could reasonably perceive that a panel member's private interests or other duties are likely to improperly influence the performance of their duties as a panel member, whether or not this is in fact the case.

These people are connections that I have, that I am noting for the record, and not due to any known conflict of interest.

Speakers:

Therese Doyle – Married to Roger Markwick. Roger and I have concurrently been in the same union branch (Newcastle NTEU). Neither Therese nor Roger are a close acquaintance.

Ghillian Sullivan, Ian Cook – my husband Paul Morris has previously studied tertiary music with both Ghillian and Ian (15 years ago) and has worked for and with Ghillian and Ian in musical shows (not more recently than a decade ago). Neither Ghillian nor Ian are a close acquaintance of myself or my husband Paul.

Bill (William) Mitchell – my husband Paul Morris has worked in the Economics Department with Bill (not within the last decade). Bill is not a close acquaintance of myself or Paul. Stephen O'Connor – we both sit on the City of Newcastle Liveable Cities Advisory Group. Not a close acquaintance

In the interest of transparency, the son of the developer is a member of the same political party. He is not a member of the same branch and we are not on any executive committees together. I don't consider him a close friend and the connection won't impact my decision-making.
