¹ An 'actual' conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and their private interests or other duties.

² A 'potential' conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with their duties as a panel member in the future.

³ A 'reasonably perceived' conflict of interests is where a person could reasonably perceive that a panel member's private interests or other duties are likely to improperly influence the performance of their duties as a panel member, whether or not this is in fact the case.

I am a social member of the club Marconi and some of the directors are known to me (in my capacity as a councillor), however this will not influence my decision as I have no private conflict of interest.

However, after discussions with the chair it was mutually decided that I do not participate in this matter to avoid any perception by the public.

I am a member of the club & know some of directors in my role as Mayor.

This will not influence my decision as I have no private conflict of interest with the organisation or the applicant.

However after discussion with the chair it was mutually agreed decided mutually to avoid any perception by the public.
