Photo	Description
 A photograph of the front (western) facade of St Paul's Parish Hall. The building is a two-story brick structure with a prominent steeple. The entrance is arched, and there are arched windows above it. A white car and a white pickup truck are parked in front of the building on a street. The sky is overcast.	Front (western) façade of St Paul's Parish Hall as viewed from Hunter Street
 A photograph of the northern facade of St Paul's Parish Hall. The building is a two-story brick structure with a gabled roof. A small, white, rectangular addition is visible on the left side of the building. The building is surrounded by a grassy area and some trees.	Northern façade of St Paul's Parish Hall with "lean to addition" to be demolished
 A photograph of the southern facade of St Paul's Parish Hall. The building is a two-story brick structure with a gabled roof. A small, white, rectangular addition is visible on the left side of the building. The building is surrounded by a grassy area and some trees.
