¹ An 'actual' conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and their private interests or other duties.

² A 'potential' conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with their duties as a panel member in the future.

³ A 'reasonably perceived' conflict of interests is where a person could reasonably perceive that a panel member's private interests or other duties are likely to improperly influence the performance of their duties as a panel member, whether or not this is in fact the case.

I make this declaration in the interests of transparency.

I do not have a conflict, however it may be perceived that there is a conflict due to my previous involvement in merit applications and draft planning instruments affecting the Habitat development. In dealing with these previous matters, it has not been considered that a conflict exists in relation to earlier determinations when considering subsequent matters.

Accordingly, I would like it noted in the record that I do not have a conflict.
