

Attachment 3 - Site locality maps and site photographs

---

Site outlined in red, within broader locality

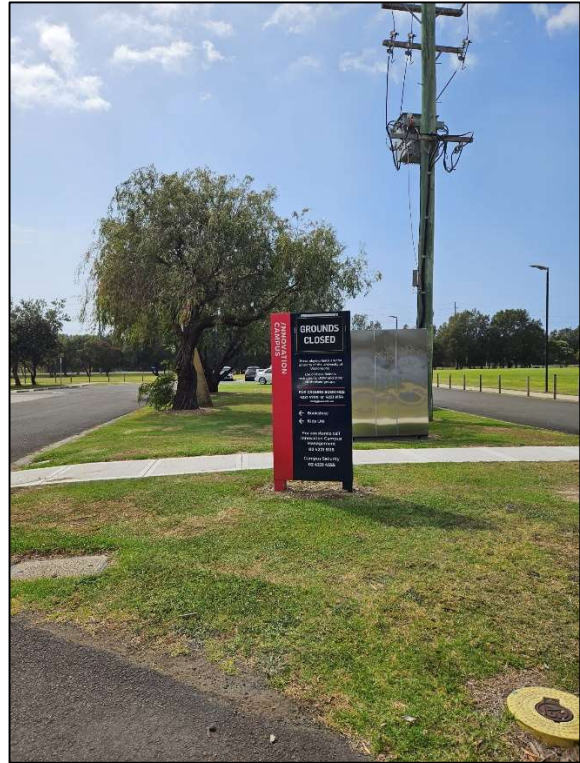

Looking north-east towards the location of the proposed CHPC and car park

Looking north-east across the location of the community field to the heritage listed huts

Looking east ward across the existing child care centre car park; signage relates to existing sports fields in the northern part of the campus

Looking south/ south-west across existing field where Field 1 is proposed

Looking south east across existing field where Field 1 is proposed

Looking east along the existing access road from which vehicular access will be gained to the CHPC and car park

Looking south along Innovation Way to the site and adjacent student accommodation building on the western side of Innovation Way

Looking north towards the northern portion of the site - State Heritage listed former Balgownie Migrant Workers' Hostel, comprising a Nissen hut and two Quonset Huts, along with associated car parking area.

Looking north east across the area of the community field – existing vegetation to boundaries evident.

Looking south-west across the northern end of the site; bus stop in the foreground along with the existing pedestrian pathway traversing the site providing pedestrian access to Squires Way

Looking south-west along the Squires Way frontage of the site. Existing vegetation to be retained

Looking north-west along the Squires Way frontage of the site. Existing vegetation to be retained.