¹ An 'actual' conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and their private interests or other duties.

² A 'potential' conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with their duties as a panel member in the future.

³ A 'reasonably perceived' conflict of interests is where a person could reasonably perceive that a panel member's private interests or other duties are likely to improperly influence the performance of their duties as a panel member, whether or not this is in fact the case.

Should a conflict be declared the panel chair is to ensure appropriate management measures are in place, as determined by the chair, and countersign this form, noting any additional measures.

The Panel Chair noted Gyde's involvement in assessment work on behalf of LAHC and noted Gyde was not directly involved in the carrying out of any assessments for this matter and is therefore satisfied that appropriate measures were in place to avoid any potential conflict of interest.
