¹ An 'actual' conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and their private interests or other duties.

² A 'potential' conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with their duties as a panel member in the future.

³ A 'reasonably perceived' conflict of interests is where a person could reasonably perceive that a panel member's private interests or other duties are likely to improperly influence the performance of their duties as a panel member, whether or not this is in fact the case.

Tony Donoghue disclosed he is a professional acquaintance of the Bush Fire Consultant who submitted a Bush Fire Assessment on behalf of the applicant. Mr. Donoghue has no pecuniary interest or close personal relationship with the consultant. The Chair of the Panel has determined that there is no actual or potential conflict of interest and Mr. Donoghue may remain appointed to the Panel for this matter.
