<sup>1</sup> An 'actual' conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and their private interests or other duties.

<sup>2</sup> A 'potential' conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with their duties as a panel member in the future.

<sup>3</sup> A 'reasonably perceived' conflict of interests is where a person could reasonably perceive that a panel member's private interests or other duties are likely to improperly influence the performance of their duties as a panel member, whether or not this is in fact the case.

I have an interest that might be perceived a conflict in this matter. I am presently working with Luke Rollinson, the author of the SEE in this matter, on a Court matter involving an RFB in the Wollongong City Centre.

Until my case is it would not be appropriate for me to sit on this determination or any other determination where Luke is involved.
