1 in 20 year minimum 1 in 20 year maximum	Not Applicable Not Applicable

GLOSSARY
m AHD	metres Australian Height Datum (AHD).
Australian Height Datum (AHD)	A common national plane of level approximately equivalent to the height above sea level. All flood levels, floor levels and ground levels are normally provided in metres AHD.
Average Recurrence Interval (ARI)	The long term average number of years between the occurrence of a flood as big as the selected event. For example, floods with a discharge as great as the 20 year ARI event will occur on average once every 20 years. ARI is another way of expressing the likelihood of occurrence of a flood event.
Flood	A relatively high stream flow that overtops the natural or artificial banks in any part of a stream, river, estuary, lake or dam. It also includes local overland flooding associated with major drainage before entering a watercourse, or coastal inundation resulting from raised sea levels, or waves overtopping the coastline.
Flood risk precinct	An area of land with similar flood risks and where similar development controls may be applied by a Council to manage the flood risk. The flood risk is determined based on the existing development in the precinct or assuming the precinct is developed with normal residential uses. Usually the floodplain is categorised into three flood risk precincts 'low', 'medium' and 'high', although other classifications can sometimes be used. High Flood Risk: This has been defined as the area of land below the 100-year flood event that is either subject to a high hydraulic hazard or where there are significant evacuation difficulties. Medium Flood Risk: This has been defined as land below the 100-year flood level that is not within a High Flood Risk Precinct. This is land that is not subject to a high hydraulic hazard or where there are no significant evacuation difficulties. Low Flood Risk: This has been defined as all land within the floodplain (i.e. within the extent of the probable maximum flood) but not identified within either a High Flood Risk or a Medium Flood Risk Precinct. The Low Flood Risk Precinct is that area above the 100-year flood event.
Local overland flooding	The inundation of normally dry land by local runoff rather than overbank discharge from a stream, river, estuary, lake or dam.
Mainstream flooding	The inundation of normally dry land occurring when water overflows the natural or artificial banks of a stream, river, estuary, lake or dam.
Probable Maximum Flood (PMF)	The largest flood that could conceivably occur at a particular location.
Flood Planning Area	The area of land below the FPL and thus subject to flood related development controls.
Flood Planning Level	Are the combinations of flood levels (derived from significant historical flood events or floods of specific AEPs) and freeboards selected for floodplain risk management purposes, as determined in management studies and incorporated in management plans.
Flood Control Lot	A lot to which flood related development controls apply in respect of development for the purposes of industrial buildings, commercial premises, dwelling houses, dual occupancies, multi dwelling housing or residential flat

	buildings (other than development for the purposes of group homes or seniors housing)

Important Notes:

Not Applicable values indicate that the subject land is not known to be subject to flooding.

Not Available values indicate that Council does not have the required flood information for the subject land.

A Glossary is also attached at the end of this Flood Information Sheet.

MAINSTREAM FLOODING

Description

Based on the information currently available to Council, this land is not affected by mainstream flooding. However, this is subject to future flood studies and reviews.

Mainstream Flood Details

Size of Flood	Flood Level (m AHD)

1 in 20 year minimum 1 in 20 year maximum	Not Applicable Not Applicable

LOCAL OVERLAND FLOODING

Description

Based on the information currently available to Council, this land is not affected by overland flooding. However, this is subject to future flood studies and reviews.

Local Overland Flood Details

Size of Flood	Flood Level (m AHD)
PMF minimum PMF maximum	Not Applicable Not Applicable
1 in 100 year minimum 1 in 100 year maximum	Not Applicable Not Applicable
1 in 20 year minimum 1 in 20 year maximum	Not Applicable Not Applicable

m AHD	metres Australian Height Datum (AHD).
Australian Height Datum (AHD)	A common national plane of level approximately equivalent to the height above sea level. All flood levels, floor levels and ground levels are normally provided in metres AHD.
Average Recurrence Interval (ARI)	The long term average number of years between the occurrence of a flood as big as the selected event. For example, floods with a discharge as great as the 20 year ARI event will occur on average once every 20 years. ARI is another way of expressing the likelihood of occurrence of a flood event.
Flood	A relatively high stream flow that overtops the natural or artificial banks in any part of a stream, river, estuary, lake or dam. It also includes local overland flooding associated with major drainage before entering a watercourse, or coastal inundation resulting from raised sea levels, or waves overtopping the coastline.
Flood risk precinct	An area of land with similar flood risks and where similar development controls may be applied by a Council to manage the flood risk. The flood risk is determined based on the existing development in the precinct or assuming the precinct is developed with normal residential uses. Usually the floodplain is categorised into three flood risk precincts 'low', 'medium' and 'high', although other classifications can sometimes be used. High Flood Risk: This has been defined as the area of land below the 100-year flood event that is either subject to a high hydraulic hazard or where there are significant evacuation difficulties. Medium Flood Risk: This has been defined as land below the 100-year flood level that is not within a High Flood Risk Precinct. This is land that is not subject to a high hydraulic hazard or where there are no significant evacuation difficulties. Low Flood Risk: This has been defined as all land within the floodplain (i.e. within the extent of the probable maximum flood) but not identified within either a High Flood Risk or a Medium Flood Risk Precinct. The Low Flood Risk Precinct is that area above the 100-year flood event.
Local overland flooding	The inundation of normally dry land by local runoff rather than overbank discharge from a stream, river, estuary, lake or dam.
Mainstream flooding	The inundation of normally dry land occurring when water overflows the natural or artificial banks of a stream, river, estuary, lake or dam.
Probable Maximum Flood (PMF)	The largest flood that could conceivably occur at a particular location.
Flood Planning Area	The area of land below the FPL and thus subject to flood related development controls.
Flood Planning Level	Are the combinations of flood levels (derived from significant historical flood events or floods of specific AEPs) and freeboards selected for floodplain risk management purposes, as determined in management studies and incorporated in management plans.
Flood Control Lot	A lot to which flood related development controls apply in respect of development for the purposes of industrial buildings, commercial premises, dwelling houses, dual occupancies, multi dwelling housing or residential flat

Mainstream Flooding

Based on the information currently available to Council, this land is not affected by mainstream flooding. However, this is subject to future flood studies and reviews.

Overland Flooding

This parcel is within the floodplain and identified as being partly within a Medium Flood Risk Precinct, partly within a Low Flood Risk Precinct as a result of overland flooding and partly not affected by overland flooding.

The term overland flooding means inundation by local runoff rather than overbank discharge from a stream, river, estuary, lake or dam.

The term Medium Flood Risk Precinct is defined as land below the 100-year flood level that is not within a High Flood Risk Precinct. This is land that is not subject to a high hydraulic hazard or where there are no significant evacuation difficulties.

The term Low Flood Risk Precinct is defined as all land within the floodplain (i.e. within the extent of the probable maximum flood) but not identified within either a High Flood Risk or a Medium Flood Risk Precinct. The Low Flood Risk Precinct is that area above the 100-year flood event.

Note: The above Flood Risk Precinct classification(s) and associated flood related development controls mean that the subject land is a 'Flood Control Lot'. Under a number of State Environmental Planning Policy (SEPP), certification must be provided by a professional engineer specialising in hydraulic engineering for any form of complying development proposed on the land. See Part 4. Complying development, section (3) of this certificate for further information.

- (k) hospitals,
- (l) hostels,
- (m) information and education facilities,
- (n) respite day care centres,
- (o) seniors housing,
- (p) sewerage systems,
- (q) tourist and visitor accommodation,
- (r) water supply systems.

Note: The flood information is the current information to date. However, Council reviews flood studies on an on-going basis and new information may become available in future. Please contact Council's Catchment Planning Division on 9725 0222 for any updated information.

Council has adopted a policy on flooding which may restrict the development of land. The Fairfield City-Wide Development Control Plan 2013 (which includes provisions for flood management) applies to all of the Fairfield Local Government area.

FLOOD CONTROL LOT

The subject property is identified as a flood control lot as defined under the SEPP (Exempt & Complying Development Codes) 2008 and SEPP (Housing) 2021. Development under the SEPP (Exempt and Complying Development Code) 2008 and SEPP (Housing) 2021 must not be carried out on any part of a flood control lot, other than that part of the lot that the council or a professional engineer who specialises in hydraulic engineering has certified, for the purposes of the issue of the relevant complying development certificate, as not being any of the following—

- (a) a flood storage area,
- (b) a floodway area,
- (c) a flow path,
- (d) a high hazard area,
- (e) a high risk area.

Under the SEPP (Exempt & Complying Development Codes) 2008 and SEPP (Housing) 2021 certification is also required from a professional engineer specialising in hydraulic engineering that a range of critical development standards, requirements, restrictions and exclusions applying to various categories of residential, commercial and industrial complying development located on a flood control lot have been met.

For further information please contact Council's Catchment Planning Branch on 9725 0222

Important Notes:

Not Applicable values indicate that the subject land is not known to be subject to flooding.

Not Available values indicate that Council does not have the required flood information for the subject land.

A Glossary is also attached at the end of this Flood Information Sheet.

MAINSTREAM FLOODING

Description

Based on the information currently available to Council, this land is not affected by mainstream flooding. However, this is subject to future flood studies and reviews.

LOCAL OVERLAND FLOODING

Description

This parcel is within the floodplain and identified as being partly within a Medium Flood Risk Precinct, partly within a Low Flood Risk Precinct as a result of overland flooding and partly not affected by overland flooding.

The term overland flooding means inundation by local runoff rather than overbank discharge from a stream, river, estuary, lake or dam.

The term Medium Flood Risk Precinct is defined as land below the 100-year flood level that is not within a High Flood Risk Precinct. This is land that is not subject to a high hydraulic hazard or where there are no significant evacuation difficulties.

The term Low Flood Risk Precinct is defined as all land within the floodplain (i.e. within the extent of the probable maximum flood) but not identified within either a High Flood Risk or a Medium Flood Risk Precinct. The Low Flood Risk Precinct is that area above the 100-year flood event.

Local Overland Flood Details

Size of Flood	Flood Level (m AHD)
PMF minimum	21.8
PMF maximum	21.9
1 in 100 year minimum	21.4
1 in 100 year maximum	21.4
1 in 20 year minimum	21.4
1 in 20 year maximum	21.4

Local overland flood levels in the vicinity of the above property have been extracted from the Sinclair Knight Merz & Fairfield Consulting Services (2010) "Old Guildford Overland Flood Study."

Advisory Note:

Supplementary flood risk information is available for this property. Please apply for this information via a GIPA informal request for information form. Please contact Council's Catchment Planning Branch for more information.

GLOSSARY
m AHD	metres Australian Height Datum (AHD).
Australian Height Datum (AHD)	A common national plane of level approximately equivalent to the height above sea level. All flood levels, floor levels and ground levels are normally provided in metres AHD.
Average Recurrence Interval (ARI)	The long term average number of years between the occurrence of a flood as big as the selected event. For example, floods with a discharge as great as the 20 year ARI event will occur on average once every 20 years. ARI is another way of expressing the likelihood of occurrence of a flood event.
Flood	A relatively high stream flow that overtops the natural or artificial banks in any part of a stream, river, estuary, lake or dam. It also includes local overland flooding associated with major drainage before entering a watercourse, or coastal inundation resulting from raised sea levels, or waves overtopping the coastline.
Flood risk precinct	An area of land with similar flood risks and where similar development controls may be applied by a Council to manage the flood risk. The flood risk is determined based on the existing development in the precinct or assuming the precinct is developed with normal residential uses. Usually the floodplain is categorised into three flood risk precincts 'low', 'medium' and 'high', although other classifications can sometimes be used. High Flood Risk: This has been defined as the area of land below the 100-year flood event that is either subject to a high hydraulic hazard or where there are significant evacuation difficulties. Medium Flood Risk: This has been defined as land below the 100-year flood level that is not within a High Flood Risk Precinct. This is land that is not subject to a high hydraulic hazard or where there are no significant evacuation difficulties. Low Flood Risk: This has been defined as all land within the floodplain (i.e. within the extent of the probable maximum flood) but not identified within either a High Flood Risk or a Medium Flood Risk Precinct. The Low Flood Risk Precinct is that area above the 100-year flood event.
Local overland flooding	The inundation of normally dry land by local runoff rather than overbank discharge from a stream, river, estuary, lake or dam.
Mainstream flooding	The inundation of normally dry land occurring when water overflows the natural or artificial banks of a stream, river, estuary, lake or dam.
Probable Maximum Flood (PMF)	The largest flood that could conceivably occur at a particular location.
Flood Planning Area	The area of land below the FPL and thus subject to flood related development controls.
Flood Planning Level	Are the combinations of flood levels (derived from significant historical flood events or floods of specific AEPs) and freeboards selected for floodplain risk management purposes, as determined in management studies and incorporated in management plans.
Flood Control Lot	A lot to which flood related development controls apply in respect of development for the purposes of industrial buildings, commercial premises, dwelling houses, dual occupancies, multi dwelling housing or residential flat

	buildings (other than development for the purposes of group homes or seniors housing)

1 in 100 year minimum 1 in 100 year maximum	Not Applicable Not Applicable
1 in 20 year minimum 1 in 20 year maximum	Not Applicable Not Applicable

m AHD	metres Australian Height Datum (AHD).
Australian Height Datum (AHD)	A common national plane of level approximately equivalent to the height above sea level. All flood levels, floor levels and ground levels are normally provided in metres AHD.
Average Recurrence Interval (ARI)	The long term average number of years between the occurrence of a flood as big as the selected event. For example, floods with a discharge as great as the 20 year ARI event will occur on average once every 20 years. ARI is another way of expressing the likelihood of occurrence of a flood event.
Flood	A relatively high stream flow that overtops the natural or artificial banks in any part of a stream, river, estuary, lake or dam. It also includes local overland flooding associated with major drainage before entering a watercourse, or coastal inundation resulting from raised sea levels, or waves overtopping the coastline.
Flood risk precinct	An area of land with similar flood risks and where similar development controls may be applied by a Council to manage the flood risk. The flood risk is determined based on the existing development in the precinct or assuming the precinct is developed with normal residential uses. Usually the floodplain is categorised into three flood risk precincts 'low', 'medium' and 'high', although other classifications can sometimes be used. High Flood Risk: This has been defined as the area of land below the 100-year flood event that is either subject to a high hydraulic hazard or where there are significant evacuation difficulties. Medium Flood Risk: This has been defined as land below the 100-year flood level that is not within a High Flood Risk Precinct. This is land that is not subject to a high hydraulic hazard or where there are no significant evacuation difficulties. Low Flood Risk: This has been defined as all land within the floodplain (i.e. within the extent of the probable maximum flood) but not identified within either a High Flood Risk or a Medium Flood Risk Precinct. The Low Flood Risk Precinct is that area above the 100-year flood event.
Local overland flooding	The inundation of normally dry land by local runoff rather than overbank discharge from a stream, river, estuary, lake or dam.
Mainstream flooding	The inundation of normally dry land occurring when water overflows the natural or artificial banks of a stream, river, estuary, lake or dam.
Probable Maximum Flood (PMF)	The largest flood that could conceivably occur at a particular location.
Flood Planning Area	The area of land below the FPL and thus subject to flood related development controls.
Flood Planning Level	Are the combinations of flood levels (derived from significant historical flood events or floods of specific AEPs) and freeboards selected for floodplain risk management purposes, as determined in management studies and incorporated in management plans.
Flood Control Lot	A lot to which flood related development controls apply in respect of development for the purposes of industrial buildings, commercial premises, dwelling houses, dual occupancies, multi dwelling housing or residential flat
