¹ An 'actual' conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and their private interests or other duties.

² A 'potential' conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with their duties as a panel member in the future.

³ A 'reasonably perceived' conflict of interests is where a person could reasonably perceive that a panel member's private interests or other duties are likely to improperly influence the performance of their duties as a panel member, whether or not this is in fact the case.

Councillor Russell Holden declared that he has not participated in any business of Mid-Western Regional Council which has considered solar farms in which the Council has an interest or a potential future interest as a proponent. On all occasions where such matters have been considered by the Council, he has stood aside from any involvement in the matter (and the minutes of the council meetings do reflect such). Further, he has never made any public statements supporting or discounting solar farms in which the Council has an interest or a potential future interest as a proponent.
