Electronic copies for Planning Proposals

Council will require all application forms, plans and associated documentation required for a Planning Proposal to be lodged in an electronic format.

In addition to hard copies, all documents and plans need to be submitted as an electronic version using a CD or USB or similar device.

All electronic documents submitted with a Planning Proposal need to satisfy the following criteria:

- PDF Format All documents, plans, application forms etc must be submitted as separate PDF files for each document or plan or application form e.g. survey plans must be one pdf document, supporting studies must be on another separate pdf document. Pdf documents can consist of numerous pages. Security setting must not be applied to electronic documents, this includes passwords.
- 2. Documents must be A4 formatted and optimised for minimum size (on-line publishing). Files larger than 4Mb should be broken up into logical parts and supplied as separate files.
- 3. Plans must be to scale and rotated to landscape.
- 4. File Names file naming conventions will apply to all electronic documents, including plans and applications forms. Please see File Naming Protocol below.
- 5. Accuracy electronic documents must be exact reproductions of the original hard copy documents or plans.

Electronic documents lodged with Council may be published on Council's webpage.
