<sup>1</sup> An 'actual' conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and their private interests or other duties.

<sup>2</sup> A 'potential' conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with their duties as a panel member in the future.

<sup>3</sup> A 'reasonably perceived' conflict of interests is where a person could reasonably perceive that a panel member's private interests or other duties are likely to improperly influence the performance of their duties as a panel member, whether or not this is in fact the case.

Should a conflict be declared the panel chair is to ensure appropriate management measures are in place, as determined by the chair, and countersign this form, noting any additional measures.

As Acting Chair of the Western City Planning Panel, I consider that Councillor Suzy Brandstater has a reasonably non-pecuniary perceived conflict of interest arising from a conflict between their duties as elected representatives on the Council and their duties on the Panel. For these reasons I have requested that Councillor Brandstater step aside from the Panel for these matters.
